NEO-NAZI FIGHTERS IN UKRAINE

18+. THIS PUBLICATION CONTAINS EXTREMISTS SYMBOLS

ANNOTATION

Members of radical nationalist groups, including those promoting neo-Nazi ideological concepts, have long ago become a hallmark of Ukraine's political and social landscape.

Many of them, directly and indirectly supported by the post-Maidan government of Ukraine, infiltrated the country's military and police structures by formally legal means after the coup-d'état in 2014.

For years, Ukrainian armed nationalist and neo-Nazi armed formations have been taking part in suppressing dissent of the inhabitants in the Donetsk and Lugansk People's republics as well as in eastern and southern parts of Ukraine, who did not agree with the overthrow of legitimate authorities of Ukraine in February 2014 and consequent changes to the Constitution of the country.

In some western states, members of the above-mentioned neo-Nazi groups were labeled as "fighters for freedom and independence of Ukraine" and were provided later on with wide political support, military training assistance, weapons and military equipment.

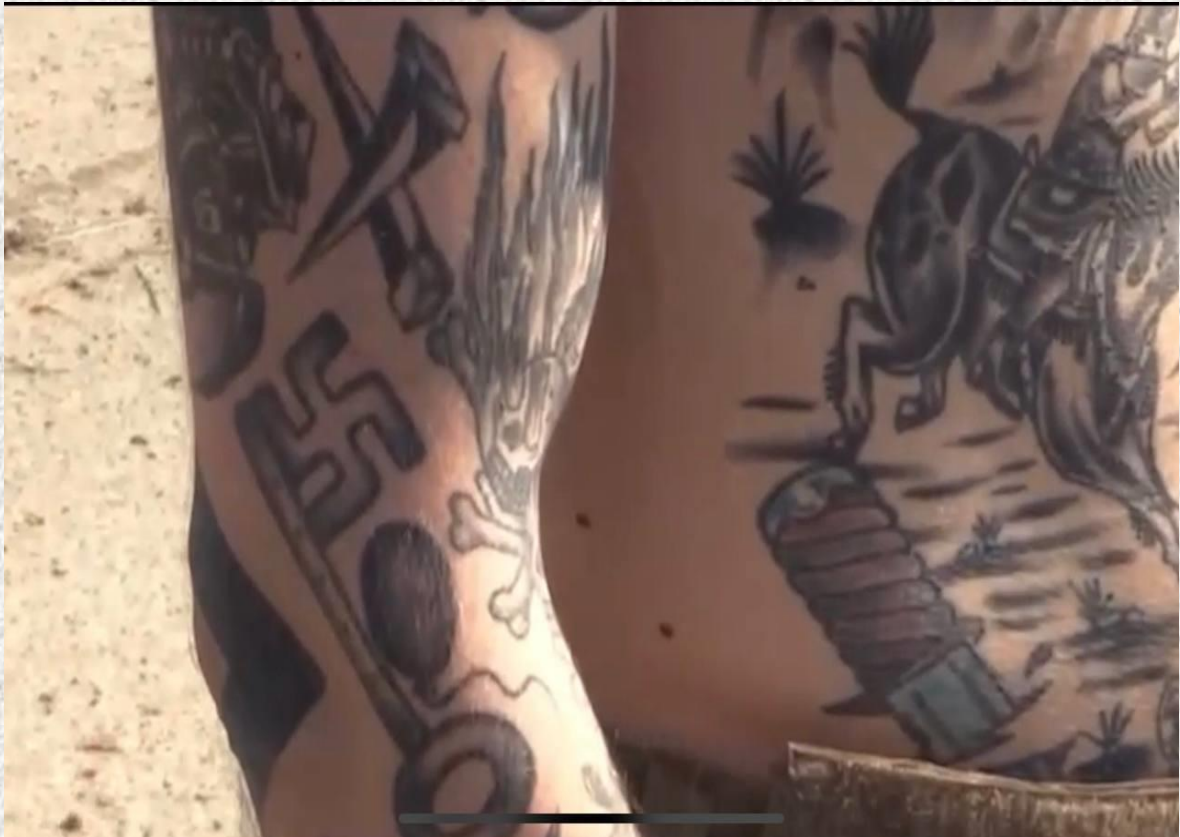

At the same time, Russia has been accused in the West of "spreading fakes and lies" with regard to the participation of neo-Nazis within Ukrainian armed formations in combat activities, which cause sufferings to the civilian population of DPR, LPR and Ukraine.

Herewith, you have the opportunity to get a closer look into the reality. The photos of a number of neo-Nazi armed fighters, surrendered during the Special military operation of the Russian Federation, as well as materials found at their abandoned strongholds, speak for themselves.
